Routine Business Marks Meeting Of DC Council

In an hour and 20 minutes Monday night the City Council managed to conduct a fair amount of routine business without a single snarl introduced from either its own ranks or the sparse audience attending.

Here is a resume of what took place:

In public hearings a vacation of a portion of Edgemar Road was closed without protest and an order for a resolution to be drawn was voted for unanimously; a request for the rezoning of certain lots in the Crocker and Edgewood projects from R-L to R-3 was denied upon recommendation of the Planning Commission, as was a request for the rezoning of certain lots in the Mission Street tract; approval was given requests for rezoning of lots on west side of Werner avenue and a lot on the corner of Gambetta street and Abbot avenue.

Communications included a notice of a change in the California Highway Commission public hearing on the freeway lateral between Junipero Serra and Skyline from May 26 to May 2 in the War Memorial Building; a letter concerning payments for gas and electric franchise tax from Pacific Gas & Electric, which prompted a call for a resolution endorsing pending legislation to make a one per cent franchise tax on such utilities uniform throughout the state which would also

NO HIGH SCHOOL WEST OF SKYLINE ...SUPT. MORGAN

Another high school west of Skyline blvd. is not necessary, as Oceana High School will be able to handle additional youngsters who will come in with the proposed Fairmont Subdivision; instead a site should be purchased east of Skyline, trustees of the Jefferson Union High School District were told Monday night by Dist. Supt. Edward Morgan in a special report concerning his conferences with a state school planner.

Morgan told the board he had long discussions with James Orsborn, field representative, school planning division of the State Department of Education, regarding the district's future high school sites.

At a recent conference, Morgan said, they had discussed the Stanford University Site Report in which that report made a recommendation that a site be purchased for a high school somewhere between Westmoor and Oceana High Schools. Two of the five sites recommended in this report are within the Fairmont area of Pacifica.

Morgan said that Orsborn told him the district should not select a site west of Skyline, because it would be too close to Oceana, and that Oceana will be able to accommodate those youngsters from Fairmont nicely.

Also, the sites recommended in the Stanford report would be higher in elevation and there would be a climatic problem. Orsborn, Morgan said, informed him the district's next site should be in the Crocker Estates, which is east.

Morgan informed the board that plans and specifications for a dissipator for a storm sewer opening have come from the State Division of Highways and have been turned over to architect Mario Ciampi's office for his engi-

To Preview Old Pictures At Memorial

The old-time picture display being compiled to highlight the city's Golden Jubilee celebration in October will have a premiere showing this weekend in conjunction with the Lions Club Youth Art Exhibit set for the foyer of the War Memorial Building.

The decision was made Tuesday morning at the regular monthly breakfast meeting of the Civic celebration committee held at the Westlake Bowl.

The display is under the supervision of Lanty Molloy and Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy.

It was also agreed at the meeting to stage a whisker-growing contest as part of the week-long event. The contest will be limited to city employees on a voluntary basis.

Ribbons for all awards made throughout the Golden Jubilee week will be hand made by Mrs. Mary Hercsuth, wife of Pinky Hercsuth who is chairman of the dog show committee.

A proposal was made by the Rev. Lynn Hodges to establish a religious division for the opening day parade in order to encourage various church groups to participate in the celebration.

In other business the committee, chairmanned by Mayor Frank Pacelli, heard progress reports from the several jubilee committees.

City Authorizes Compactor For Street Repairs

Purchase of an asphalt vibratory compactor at a cost of $2,650 was authorized Monday night by the City Council.

The request for the purchase was made by City Engineer Bill Chapman.

The funds are to be drawn from the department's present budget of $5,000 allotted in capital outlay for the purchase of a new compactor blade.

Chapman explained that "throughout the history of Daly City our crews have not been able to patch properly because we lack the necessary equipment."

He added that the compactor can be carried on the back of a dump truck, and that because of its vibratory nature, it is equivalent to an eight-ton tandem steel roller.

Fund Transfers Get Council OK

Three transfers of funds were authorized Monday night at the City Council meeting.

A sum of $5,000 was transferred from the unbudgeted reserve capital outlay to the capital outlay for the improvement of Westmoor Park.

The same amount was transferred from unappropriated fund balance to appropriations for new water meter parts.

And $1,000 was transferred from the unbudgeted reserve to appropriations for personnel exams for the remainder of the fiscal year.

14 Vie In Trustee Races

Races for seats on the Jefferson Elementary and Jefferson Union High School Districts built up momentum this week as time began to run out for the participants as they approached the homestretch. Election is next Tuesday.

Up until now, at any rate, the races have been quiet and polite. Most of the "rallying" has been done at coffee clatches or at small, dignified PTA meetings. A few signs are scattered on lamp posts and telephone posts announcing that this one wants in, or this wants back in.

The issues, which haven't been too clear or well defined seem to boil down to this: reducing the school tax dollar, when and if possible, and eliminating double sessions altogether. Every candidate thinks a little differently on the subject, but they all agree that, if elected, they will strive to provide the best educational facilities and teachers possible.

There are 14 candidates running for seven seats on the board, two of the seats are uncontested, as in one case, a former trustee has resigned and left it vacant; and in another the incumbent is not running.

Five of the contestants are incumbents. They are running hard. But it's anyone's race!

Mary's Help Gets 11 Acres Near Here

Mary's Help Hospital, located at 145 Guerrero street, San Francisco since 1912, has purchased 11 acres immediately south of Daly City in Northern San Mateo County as a new location for the hospital, Sister Hermine, administrator, announced this week.

The property is a square shaped parcel off San Fernando Road and close to Junipero Serra Boulevard. It is conveniently located to serve Pacifica, South San Francisco and Daly City and is about 20 minutes travel time from downtown San Francisco.

Sister Hermine said that the architects have reported that the site is ideal for construction of a multi-story building. It is located on a hill from which there are beautiful views of the San Bruno Mountains and the Pacific Ocean, and when the new freeways are completed the new hospital will be at the hub of transportation routes, Sister added.

The new hospital site is almost at the center of the hospital service area created last February by the State Advisory Hospital Council at the request of the Mayors of Daly City, South San Francisco and Pacifica. Sister Hermine confirmed that Mary's Help Hospital would apply for federal and state financial assistance. Application will be made before June 30 for funds to cover from 50 per cent to 60 per cent of the cost of the hospital project. Meanwhile, a site survey to assist the architects in design drawings is proceeding.

The decision to re-locate in Northern San Mateo County was made following a survey of hospital needs in San Francisco and vicinity. The survey showed that this area had the highest population without hospital facilities.

Mary's Help Hospital is a fully accredited hospital, operated and managed by the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul.

Negotiations for the hospital property were handled by Del Wilson of St. Francis Real Estate Daly City. Wilson, as a former City Council member, had worked for years in an attempt to bring such a hospital to this area. This transaction involved approximately two months of negotiation, Wilson said.

Time For Action - - - -

Tuesday, April 18 — Mark it well on your calendar! It's your last chance to keep San Mateo County, your county, free of one-man rule. This cannot happen if you vote "No" on all Charter Amendment proposals — but it can happen, and might, if you are apathetic enough to disregard previous warnings and vote one-man rule into the county.

We have always believed, believe now, and always will believe that the electorate should choose their county officials — all of them in fact — and not have any one man or small group appoint said officials. Let's keep the power of political appointments in the hands of the people where it inherently belongs by right of our democratic political system.

As for said charter amendments — let's look at them — especially those that seek to make present elective officers appointive or to take away their present powers and duties:

Amendment D — if passed — would take away from the District Attorney the bulk of his duties and place these duties and powers into the hands of the County Manager and Board of Supervisors.

Amendment E — if passed — would take six elective offices away from the voters of San Mateo County and place them under the complete charge of the County Manager (you don't vote for him either; he is appointed): County Clerk, County Engineer, County Recorder, County Tax Collector, County Treasurer and County Coroner. The County Manager would appoint these officials.

Amendment F — if passed — would take away from the Supervisors the power to appoint the Agricultural Commissioner, County Librarian, and Sealer of Weights and Measures; turning these appointments over to the County Manager.

Amendment I — if passed — would remove all administrative powers and authority from the Parks and Recreation Commission. They would act in an advisory capacity only to the County Manager and Board of Supervisors.

In the mind of this writer comes a thought that possibly the best thing to do in the coming Charter Amendment proposals election is to pull the "No" lever on the whole thing.

Lions Club Announces Changes

A change in judges for the Daly City-Colma Lions Club Youth Art Exhibit was announced this week by exhibit officials.

Stanley Cohen, director of art for the Oakland Public Schools, will replace Archie Wedemyer, superintendent of art for the San Francisco School District. Wedemyer has become suddenly ill and cannot attend the exhibit set for Thursday through Sunday.

The show will be presented at the War Memorial Building in Daly City.

"In 1960, 59.83 per cent of our tax dollar went for schools. I would like to see the school tax share of the dollar decreased. If elected, I will support a program of seeing to it that the taxpayer gets more for his money than he has gotten so far. I'm tired of seeing how the board has been throwing money away! Also, notification from the North San Mateo County Sanitation District that approval had been granted for the sewer lateral plan for Westlake Unit No. 1-A; notice that a national, state and local civil defense drill will be conducted soon.

The Planning Commission was authorized, upon its own request, to meet twice monthly instead of only once. Mayor Frank Pacelli said in reference to this:

"This will be a welcome change for people who have submitted requests that have had to be delayed in the past. I hope that by this increased meeting time the situation will be improved; that faster action will be forthcoming."

Also, the eligibility list for city employees has been increased from one to two years, meaning that the city will no longer confront the present annual cost of new civil service examinations.

A proposed subdivision ordinance was introduced by Councilman Michael DeBernardi who emphasized that he did not feel that a public hearing was necessary, however, he urged all interested parties to be present at the next regular meeting, April 24, at which time the ordinance will come up for adoption. He said that all differences of opinion could be heard at that time. He added that to his knowledge only three to four areas of disagreement currently exist between the city and subdividers.

Approval of plans and specifications for the improvement of Westmoor Park was given. This involves planting, watering and fencing to protect existing slopes and to keep youngsters off of them. Cost would be about $26,000 which is $6,000 over original estimate.

The only recommendation the Traffic Committee considered was the moving of cab stands on Mission and Hillside to Hillside and Brunswick. The City Attorney was authorized to draw up a resolution.

STATEMENTS

on the board I'll see that he gets it!"

John W. Burkhard

"Sufficient measures are being taken to develop the enriched or gifted child and the child of low achievement. My main concern is with the child of average intelligence who will in all probability end his formal education upon graduation from high school. Education is too often soft and easy, flabby and centered on non-essentials, leaving the child immature, both mentally and physically. More attention needs to be placed on the basic foundations of education—grammar, spelling, composition, math, history and comprehensive reading."

Dr. Donald Calvert

"I believe my educational background and professional experience qualify me for meeting and understanding the problems of the board. We can have and maintain the best education possible only through the cooperation of parents, the school administration, and a qualified board. In this time of growing school facilities, we must also strive for quality in education."

William Cronman

"I have three reasons for running. If elected, I will initiate action by the high school district to make a study of unification with four elementary school districts — Jefferson, Brisbane, Bayshore and Laguna Salada. Secondly, I feel my experience of seven years of dealing with state aid will be of great help to the district, and thirdly, I would initiate a number of policy changes involving curriculum, discipline and report cards. I believe the present board has done a good overall job but credit goes more to the administration."

Anna M. Eason

"I have conscientiously dedicated myself to the educational welfare of this high school district, and would have consistently maintained a well-balanced curriculum, with additional foresight to acquire adequate building sites for future expansion. It is my belief that the most pressing problem facing our community today is the education of the coming generation."

Elio A. Fontana

"The problems confronting this high school district in the past have been great. Fantastic enrollments have dictated extreme measures. Our district, for the first time in 1958, entered the complexities of working on the state aid program for financial assistance in the construction of new high schools. It is not sufficient that we merely provide high schools, the entire board is dedicated to the principal of providing an intelligent high school program, and employing the finest teachers available. I sincerely believe I have helped to do this. I am also aware of rising school costs and I am interested in instituting economy proceedings whenever possible."

Lyal Ingersoll

"I stand on my record of achievement! During my tenure on the board, I have helped to develop, approve, and print an educational philosophy policy; developed, approved and printed a course of study; selected and appointed a director of instruction and curriculum; inaugurated programs for the gifted students in science, mathematics, English, and social studies. I have helped to establish a program for the mentally retarded, helped to select and appoint a district psychologist and a district psychiatric social worker, established a complete guidance and counseling program, and enlarged the adult evening program."

Ronald R. Mangean

"I am honestly interested in bending my efforts to advance progressive education and maintain the best scholastic facilities and qualified teachers in order that our children receive the finest possible training to assist them in future years. My years of business management experience, knowledge of building construction, special educational training, and work with a number of youth guidance activities provide a background that would qualify me to take a position on the board and start doing a professional job immediately."

Dr. Jerry C. Miles

"As city treasurer of Pacifica and being familiar with the expenditure of tax funds, I feel a more comprehensive recreation program for all the children of the district could be effected through a better liaison between school district and various city governments. By more effective use of the tax dollar the entire family may derive recreational pleasure. I think further, double sessions throughout the district can be averted through proper planning and scheduling. We must maintain a high level of academic achievement to realize the potential of every student, that they may utilize their individual abilities in the advanced scientific and broadened world of tomorrows."

Katherine Mullen

"I am seeking reelection because I have always been interested in my community and the education of our children. Education is the one permanent thing that we can give our children. Once received, it cannot be taken away; it is a priceless inheritance that will remain and grow with the child throughout his life."

Palmiro J. Nolli

"We are going to have to maintain a very high level in the academic field. This is going to require the best qualified teachers, more counseling, and more three R's, and try to keep school taxes down. I feel my educational background of business will help to ascertain and evaluate costs, budgets, educational needs, and policy making."

Tom Noonan

"In the three years I have been on three elementary board, double sessions have been eliminated, teacher turnover has been cut by more than half, while taxes have been held to 40 cents below the legal limit. I pledge my continued support of the best in education backed up by good, sound management. During my tenure I have seen the opening of 204 elementary classrooms in six newly constructed schools. I stand on my record!"

Sheldon Prezant

"My purpose in running is to bring years of business and executive experience and practices to the board. The present board has done as much as it knows how on its building program. But the growth rate throughout the district is of vital concern and will bring new problems and plans that will affect our tax structure. There should be an academic program that wil prepare and offer our youth a chance to pursue the courses necessary for college entrance."

Sally Stein

"The school building is nothing but an empty shell unless it is manned by a qualified professional staff with a definite objective and an extensive curriculum program equipped with the necessary tools to provide effective education, guidance, counseling and psychological services. Everything possible must be done to eliminate half-day sessions, afford assistance to those students who find it difficult to compete with others on an equal level."

No High School

neers to study and modify. A report is due at the April 24 meeting.

The division has asked the district to place a dissipator (a mechanical gate, which slows down the flow of water) over the opening of a storm drain which lies on the westerly edge of the Oceana School site.

Water rushes out into a ditch running east of Highway 1, owned by the division, filling up the ditch and causing an overflow.

Morgan informed the board that he has been informed by the Local Allocation Division office that state funds can not be made available to defray costs to construct a bridge across San Pedro Creek, which is located north of Linda Mar boulevard, and effects one of the entrances to Terra Nova. A temporary structure is there now. It had been suggested by the City of Pacifica that the District, Laguna Salada School District, and developers of the neighboring area go in together on the costs of constructing such a bridge.

The board instructed Morgan to check with the district attorney's office to see if the district could use general fund monies to enter into a contract with the builders. At some future date, any monies advanced by the district would be returned by the builder or builders when the surrounding area is subdivided. The district's share would be about $2,500.

Accepted the resignation of Miss Elizabeth Kaner, English instructor.

Approved the hiring of the following teachers: Loretta Barrious, for Terra Nova High; Jack Fraenkel, Terra Nova; Anthony J. Harcar, Terra Nova; Thomas M. McGrail, Terra Nova; John Milton, Westmoor; and Michael A. Tugendreich, Jefferson.

Accepted the following resignations: Mrs. Cora Gout, secretary to Dr. Ivan; Mrs. Betty Holcomb, secretary to the business manager; and Mrs. Bette Richardson, district bookkeeper.

Approved the hiring of Mrs. Gene Bloem and Mrs. Rita Munoz as receptionist and cashier respectively, at Terra Nova.

Approved a resolution of intention to join the California State Retirement Contract, San Mateo County.

Set May 15 for a special meeting in which a detailed study of the 1961-62 budget will be begun.

Appointed Chariman Lyal Ingersoll to award diplomas to graduating seniors at Jefferson High at exercises on Thursday, June 16, and Trustee Elio Fontana to award diplomas to graduating seniors at Westmoor. Exercises will be held simultaneously.

Under MacDonald Island in the San Joaquin River Delta is America's largest natural gas "storage tank." PG&E is pumping out-of-state natural gas into this old gas field. In summer, when you use less gas for heating, we put it underground at MacDonald Island—ready for instant delivery when cold snaps come. Using nature's mile-deep reservoir is an economical way of storing this low-cost energy. This is another project in Pacific Gas and Electric Company's continuing program of building ahead for California—a state on the grow.

START PROCLAIMING PRIVATE ENTERPRISE

Whatever impression the leaders of Western nations carry away from their meetings with the heads of the Communist empire, one usually stands out above all the rest. And that is simply this: that every Communist leader has total uncompromising faith in the power, essential rightness, and ultimate triumph of the system which he represents. This belief and determination now threaten free institutions in every corner of the earth. In our own country, this facet of Communism has been remarked upon repeatedly by citizens in all walks of life who have come in contact with it. That this determination should be so disturbing is, in fact, merely a reflection of a far more menacing danger, and that is an uncertainty on our part and a lack of faith and belief in the strength and essential rightness of our own capitalistic institutions.

Much of the teaching in our schools and colleges leaves a student with a feeling of doubt as to the rightness of private enterprise in a free nation. Our federal government is furthering the socialistic philosophy in many way by putting government into business in competition with private citizens, thus adding to the confusion of students. The effect is to glorify big government rather than to build pride in and support of individualistic opportunity that built this nation. Why should our people tolerate policies that destroy representative government and private enterprise?

Commenting on our fence-straddling indifference, Robert R. Gros of San Francisco said, "The American busines world . . . now faces its gravest hour, both at home and abroad. Khrushchev says American children will grow up under Communism and he isn't joking.

"American free enterprise is in a critical position today, placed there by its own reluctance to talk about itself. If we don't do something about this situation of public opinion now, the American incentive system as we know it won't survive many more generations."

THE RIGHT TO ADVOCATE

Has a taxpayer the right to spend money, in ethical and legal fashion, in an effort to defeat or promote legislation which would affect his business and his livelihood and to regard the cost as a legitimate business expense for income tax purposes? Or, if he so undertakes to make his views known, must he do so at a heavy tax penalty?

These are not academic questions. The Internal Revenue Service and other government agencies have held that such expenditures are not tax deductible. This has happened in the case of a number of enterprises which have used advertising and other means of expression to say what they think about legislatve propositions. The outstanding example here is the electric utility industry. It has, openly and aboveboard, opposed the socialized power movement—which is literally a life-and-death matter so far as it is concerned. If that is not a legitimate business expense, which should be treated like all other business expenses for income tax purposes, one wonders what it is.

In any event, the Committee on Federal Taxation of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants recently expressed themselves thus to the House Ways and Means Committee: "We believe the taxpayers not only have the right but have an obligation to express their informed opinions and share their experiences with legislators and the public generally. When such activities bear a close relationship to the taxpayer's trade or business or to other activities engaged in for the production of income and the methods employed are legal and moral, the expenses thereof should be deductible for income tax purposes."

Apparently only Congress can bring about a change in the existing IRS rulings. Let us hope that it acts, and with minimum delay. There is no room in a supposedly free country for censorship by taxation.

School Board Candidates To Appear At Final Rally

In what may be their last public appearance before next Tuesday's election, candidates for board seats of either the Jefferson Elementary School District or Jefferson High School District will do some last-minute campaigning when they appear at a special meeting Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the multi-purpose room of Vista Mar School.

The public is urged to attend this meeting, which is being sponsored by the Young Women's Christian Assn. of Northern San Mateo County. The school is located at 725 Southgate avenue.

Each candidate will be allowed five minutes to express his or her views. No questions will be allowed from the floor, however, candidates will make themselves available at the conclusion of the program to informally discuss issues and their positions.

There are 14 candidates, including five incumbents vying for a total of seven seats on the two boards.

On the elementary school board incumbents Katherine Mullen and Tom Noonan must battle it out with four challengers. A third seat is to be filled. This is the seat now held by Chairman Frank Verducci who is not running again.

The trio facing reelection on the high school board are Elio Fontana, Chairman Lyal Ingersoll, and Mrs. Anna Eason. Although it is not being contested, there is a fourth seat to be filled. This is the one held by Dr. Robert Rockstein, who resigned earlier this year.

Pros and cons on the proposed changes in the county charter will also be discussed at the meeting.

Judge Blum To Talk On Fitness Of Movies

Judge Frank Blum will discuss pros and cons of today's movies for children before the Olympia School PTA at the unit's next meeting on Thursday, April 20.

New officers will also be installed during the evening by Mrs. C. H. Preston, 17th district extension director.

Sandra Cavalano Wins Regional Speech Tourney

Sandra Cavalano, Jefferson High School speaker, went on to her fourth victory last Thursday night by taking first place in the Daly City-Colma-Millbrae Lion's Club regional speech contest.

Sandra has thus far triumphed at the high school, club, zone and regional levels.

She will next represent the Daly City-Colma club at the Hoberg's Lion's convention, vying for district honors.

The student winning the District Four contest will receive a $1500 scholarship.

The three students tying for second place will receive $500 scholarships each.

Present for the regional runoff from the Daly City-Colma club, hosted by the Millbrae group, were President and Mrs. Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Neville, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Charette, Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Hannah, and Elio Fontana, the latter of whom served as speaker chairman.

Judges for the contest included Walter A. Jack, Dr. Charlos Montandon, Melvin Ellett.

Millbrae President Joe Williams presided over the meeting and competition.

Speakers were introduced by Deputy Lion District Governor Gil Larish.

Zone chairmen were Harry Hunz, George Guidotti and Stanford Hanah.

Ruddie Tretten, Miss Cavalano's coach, and Miss Jacqueline Jensen, teacher at Westmoor High, were both guests of the local club.

Miss Cavalano spoke on the Lion's Club topic for this year—"Our National Heritage, Pattern for Today."

CALLAN PARK FIRST MAP GETS COMMISSION OK

The South San Francisco Planning Commission Monday night gave full approval to the tentative map of the first unit of the recent Callan Park Annexation, according to Mrs. Anita Robertson, planning director.

Mrs. Robertson added that the approval is, of course, subject to the legality of the annexation which will become official in about 30 days.

The first unit is comprised of 88 lots, 50 by 100 feet each and includes two cross streets and one side street.

There were no protests to the acceptance of the tentative map.

Mrs. Robertson added that the commision will consider amendments to its current zoning ordinance with regard to "planned communities" which could eventually include the controversial Callan "townhouse" or "common-green" plan.

The city's present ordinance permits planned communities of 15 acres or more, limited to R-1, R-2 or C-1 only.

County Goal Told For '61 Cancer Drive

San Mateo County's 1961 goal for the annual American Cancer Society fund drive is $96,875, according to Mrs. Edward H. Jenanyan, president of the county branch of ACS.

April has been designated as Cancer Control Month by President John F. Kennedy. Mrs. Kennedy is the honorary national crusade chairman this year.

"We are asking every resident in the county to join us in working harder than ever before," Mrs. Jenanyan said. "We can win the fight against cancer with the understanding and kind, helping hand of Daly City residents as well as those of the rest of the county."

Following is the breakdown by community and quota set for 1961: Brisbane, $100; Broadmoor, $375, Colma, $1,000; Daly City, $2,000; San Bruno, $3,000; Westlake, $2,000; Pacifica, $1,000; and South San Francisco, $2,900.

PGE Taxes To DC Reveal Increase

Payments of franchise taxes on both electricity and gas were made recently to the city by Pacific Gas & Electric Co.

Voucher drafts in the amount of $8,160.46 for the electric franchise and $13,081.38 for the gas franchise tax payments were delivered to the City Clerk on March 28, according to company officials.

These payments exceed those made in 1959 by 16.4 per cent and 37.5 per cent respectively.

The increase represents a strong community growth, the company said, adding that the high percentages of gas usage reflects the low temperatures encountered in the area last fall.

WHEELBARROW in hand, lovely Shirley Fischer, Westlake Bank of America secretary, drops a graphic hint that the third annual Home Improvement and Cleanup Week will be staged in Daly City beginning April 19 and running through April 26. During this period merchants and citizens will be urged to spruse up their shops and homes in the name civic pride and beauty. The campaign will tie in with National Do-It-Yourself Week and National Home Improvement Week. The annual event is sponsored by Marchbanks Publications in cooperation with the city and the Chamber of Commerce. —Staff photo

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Prezant Tells Impressions Of Campaign

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

I would appreciate if you would print this letter as the last statement that I have to make before the election, April 18.

This has been an experience that I will never forget; meeting, debating, and understanding the people in our districts and the candidates.

This challenge has offered me the opportunity of speaking my mind and feeling the pulse of of my neighbors.

The parents will be enlightened to know that all of the fine candidates have added their thongits and convictions to help guide the newly elected board members in a more solid program, enriched with new ideas.

I want to personally thank my neighbors, friends, PTA members, and all who have helped me in this coming election. Should I win, my only interest will be to represent the people and in every way possible give our children the guidance and support they need to give them a better life.

Sincerely,
Sheldon M. Prezant

Earnshaw Family Thanks Firemen

Gentlemen:

Last Monday, April 3, we were burned out of our house in St. Francis Heights—287 Del Prado drive, and we would like to publicly thank the Daly City Fire Department and especially Chief Elmer Kennedy for the marvelous job and the most efficient manner in which they handled the fire.

The men were very alert and did everything possible to prevent further destruction of our furniture and personal belongings. Our sincere thanks and appreciation to the Fire Department as well as all our neighbors who were most kind and thoughtful.

The Robert Earnshaw Family
Mrs. Robert Earnshaw.

Once again Serra Highlands Improvement Association is nearing the close of another year of operation.

It has been a busy, and sometimes controversial, year. I wish to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for help and consideration which you have given us in publicizing our activities during the past year. Your co-operation with our publicity chairman has been a great help in making the year a successful one.

On many occasions at social functions and some of our more interesting meetings we had the pleasure of having numerous Daly City residents as our guests. We are certain that this was due mainly to the advance publicity your publications gave our activities.

Thank you again for your help during the past year.

Your very truly,

MASON ENTERS DISPUTE OVER PACIFICA'S MAYOR

Councilman George Mason of Pacifica had his say this week about the controversy of who's going to be the city's mayor and for how long.

Mason agreed, in effect, with Mayor Harold Feyge's recent opinion that the office of mayor should not be changed annually.

Feyge had said that as far as he was concerned, he planned to continue on as mayor for another year. He explained that it requires at least a year to become proficient in the position.

Mason apparently offered himself up as a possible choice for next mayor, saying that he would be willing to serve and would endeavor to perform in an accountable manner.

Mason also touched on the question of absenteeism introduced by Feyge. He said that whatever absenteeism he was guilty of had been justified because of illness.

He said that among his friends and associates there are several who feel that he would be right for the job of mayor.

He added that whatever the outcome of the dispute, the council will, as it has in the past, support its chosen mayor completely.

Stanford Health Exec To Address Education Group

Dr. Oliver E. Byrd, executive head of the Department of Health Education at Stanford University, will be guest speaker at the next meeting of 17th District of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers, to be held at 9:30 a.m. April 20, in the Brentwood School, Clarke and O'Connor streets, East Palo Alto.

President Mrs. Foriest Cunningham announced that this will be a combined executive board and regular meeting with the theme "Opening Wide Our Screen Door to Health,, with Health Director Mrs. Ralph E. Todd participating in the overall arrangements. Dr. Byrd's topic for discussion will be "Health Problems in Our Schools Today."

Over the years Dr. Byrd has been associated with many organizations and recognized for his activities in numerous school health programs, for many California schools and others throughout the Nation.

He is listed in "The International Blue Book, World Notables," 1951-52; "Who's Who in America," since 1952; "Who's Who in American Education" since 1945, and "Leaders in Education," since 1948.

Machinist Strike Shuts Down Ten SSF Operations

Agreement between union officials and striking Bay Area machinists as to a new contract had not been reached as of press time Wednesday.

The strike, according to unofficial reports, has affected at least 10 industrial plants in South San Francisco. The names of the plants are not known.

Also, approximately 5,000 employees in San Mateo County have been idled by the strike which hit last week.

Increases in wages of up to 35 cents an hour have been asked. Counter offers from employers of from 6 to 10 cents have been rejected.

The striking machinist union is currently negotiating with the employer's group, the California Metal Association, at the Sir Francis Drake Hotel in San Francisco.

Officials of both groups hold out scant hope that the strike will be settled quickly.

Richard Goggins is the federal mediator.

It is further estimated that some 14,000 machinists union members in 127 Bay area plants are now idle because of the strike.

DC, Colma Families Give Over $6,000 To '61 Heart Fund

Daly City and Colma families and businesses have contributed $6,413 to the Heart Fund, according to Robert A. Lytel, 1961 Heart Fund chairman for the San Mateo County Heart Association.

Through March, contributions from Heart Sunday and Heart-Days for Business throughout the county total $88,860, now ahead of last year's comparable figure of $86,152.

The 1961 campaign ends June 30.

Lytel credited the fine response from Daly City and Colma upon "the inspired leadership of Mrs. J. B. Wiener. Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy and Police Chief Ray Savage."

Robert Eskew's . . . WORDS TO READ BY

All right, Eskew . . . enough of this confounded silliness.

So you're going to be a columnist, be one. Already you're beginning to come on like Linus and his blanket. Or Schroeder and his Beethoven piano. Or that new chick with the naturally curly hair. Or even Snoopy, the fearless lion hunter.

Better you should hunt lions, but for you, I know, the lions would turn out to be spiders or snakes, and even your best friends know how petrified you are of them.

No thanks, it's no consolation to know that they're just as afraid of me. And don't tell me I'm bigger than they are. One look at a stray from either species and I would willingly swear that it was Gargantua in long pants and stilts. Like I said once before, I'm enormously courageous.

All my life I wanted more than anything to visit Ernest Hemingway in Cuba. But once I read something of his in which he talked about the "infernal spiders and snakes." I'm not sure whether he meant the ones produced by muchos intake of Gordon's gin or the other kind (beer drinkers will understand). But anyway, I changed my mind.

As far as I'm concerned, Ernesto has got to visit me if I want to see him because all I've got is Siamese cats. They dig writers and abhor spiders and snakes (and all the furabouts drink is milk and sink water).

Before the SPCA jumps all over me, let me explain about that "sink water." Granted, it's a cardinal obligation in the caring for of cats that at all times you keep a fresh bowl of water handy for the fastidious little felines.

So always, this little bowl is present for the Eskew brood. Fresh, sparkling, mountain clear, might even have some fluoride now and then, 'cause cat dentists come awful high, you know (this last is probably a mistake because there have been a thousand times when I have wished that their spiky little molars would fall out forever).

But you take these cats. They couldn't care less about "fresh, sparkling and mountain clear," fluoride or no. The shiny, ever-present bowl gets the almighty reject in favor of: leaky faucets, uncapped water closets, dewy windows, steamed bathroom mirrors, dish water hands that still have dish water on them and rain water that leaks in under the front door weather stripping. Anyway you look at it, it's sink water. But anything's better than spiders and snakes, right Ernest?

And now . . . on to that column, Eskew.

I thought that this week we would tackle something genuinely profound, like chuck holes, the kind your tires won't fit around or between, even if you drive a bicycle.

Being on an austerity kick of late, I've taken to stocking my auto with pumpernickel bread, assorted spreads and relishes, a few flagons of mustard green wine and head cheese, whereupon, each lunch hour I hie myself to the hills of Mar Vista Drive, find a wondie groove in one of the better dump areas, lock the brakes, and picnic it up. (Already I realize I've spoiled my soiled sanctuary. And I'll probably get fined $50 for litter bugging.)

But recently, when I whip off Crocker Avenue onto Mar Vista and head . . . east? . . . toward the happy dumping grounds, I find it necessary to wheel my car like I was a recruit back on the old obstacle course. Chuck holes, ladies and gentlemen, of the natural bomb shelter variety.

It's sheer love that drives me on, it must be, because already I've lost a half dozen bumper bolts, my muffler straps are looser than a four-year-old's front tooth and my trusty auto has lost a distressing amount of its customary thrust because of, alas, square wheels.

Don't know whose jurisdiction I'm slamming, but, man, them chunk holes is a far out disgrace, hear me.

Looking at them, you'd imagine that streets were built like balloons, the ascension type . . . just a bunch of fragile skin over a gang of hot air.

During Easter vacation week, while driving along Mar Vista, toward my solace, I heard a small boy whimpering to his mother that he had lost his basketball in a "street cave."

Chunk holes, folks, is what the youngster was bemoaning. The best durn chunk holes this side of the Grand Canyon, and like I said, I've got the square wheels to prove it.

Can't have everything just so, I know, but I'll be glad to pay that $50 litter-bugging fine if someone will only plug those pits.

Salvation Army Prepares Drive In Area Beginning April 17-22

The Salvation Army Men's Social Service Centers in Northern California will observe their Annual Spring Salvage Week, April 17-22.

The Safeway Company is once again cooperating in this event by offering "double-duty" bags in their stores during this week. These bags carry a printed reminder of the salvage drive.

Just as a cooperative effort helps to lighten the load at home, the united effort of the Safeway Stores and The Salvation Army make it easier for householders to dispose of their useable discards.

These bags may be filled with clothing, rags and other household articles and a call to the local Salvation Army truck service will bring a truck to your home. Other items needed are repairable furniture, appliances, mattresses, rugs and bric-a-brac

The Salvation Army rehabilitation program for men is entirely maintained by the reprocessing and sale of discards. Seven centers operate in Northern California where long term residential care is given. Comfortable housing, medical and dental services, work therapy assignments, Christian and psychological counseling, and planned leisure time activities are all part of the program. Men from this community with alcoholic, emotional ar physical handicaps may apply for admittance to these Centers.

THOMAS L. BOCCI LEVELS CHARGES AT CITY MANAGERS

Thomas L. Bocci, attorney for the Daly City Police and Firemen's Association and as spokesman for the association, charges the North County City Managers with bad faith in their intended association to adjust police and firemen's salary on a uniform basis among the six north county cities.

"Over the past five years, our association has made many efforts to improve their status with respect to fringe benefits without success. Excepting for moderate pay raises, the City of Daly City, through its City Manager, has repeatedly recommended against any concession on fringe benefits. These fringe benefits are nothing more than very natural and customary in all ranks of labor, to-wit: clothing allowance, firemen's 63-hour work week, court time compensation, life insurance, unlimited accumulation of sick leave, longevity pay, more liberal vacation time, retirement benefits and pension plan.

"Our association has presently pending before the city administration a request for the aforementioned fringe benefits, which is a renewal of several earlier applications. The attempt of the City Managers to join in proposing a standardized approach by the city of these wage demands is contrary to the spirit of the law. Each city is an autonomous entity and is required by law to approach its problems on a direct basis with is association. It appears that this is an attempt to unite the cities in a joint effort to resist any attempt to any effort to acquire additional benefits. These problems are, therefore, to each city individual and should be approached as such. The standard pay of one city cannot be controlled by the standard of pay to another city, since the problems attached to each of the cities vary.

"It is the position of our association that the city should give more consideration to the standards of pay, including fringe benefits, which presently prevail in the surrounding cities and guide themselves accordingly in approaching the problems of this city. On policemen's and firemen's pay and fringe benefits, our Daly City policemen and firemen, on a relative comparison with pay rates and fringe benefits in comparable cities, is far below the standard. If the intentions of the City Manager are well founded, there is no need for him to resort to the aid and comfort of the city managers of the surrounding cities. Rather, let him look at the records of comparable cities, which will give him all the information he needs to deal fairly and equitably with the policemen and firemen of this city.

"As attorney for the association, it is my intention to question the validity of any act or policy that the City Manager may promulgate on the basis of any association of the city managers. Let the City Manager be forthright in his approach to our problem, and we will, in turn, be forthright with him."

Subdivision ID Marker Dedicated

On Saturday the long awaited Serra Highlands subdivision identification marker was dedicated to the city of South San Francisco.

This marker, consisting of an island with a brick planter box and an illuminated sign, was made possible by many hours of volunteer labor by residents of the area.

Although other identification signs exist in South San Francisco, this is the first illuminated sign to be erected.

On hand to accept this marker for the city were Mayor Andrew Rocca and Vice Mayor Patrick Ahern. A scroll of proclamation to commemorate the occasion was presented to the mayor.

A federal, state and local Civil Defense test exercise will be staged on Friday and Saturday, April 28 and 29, according to County Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald.

The city of Daly City has been invited to paricipate in the nation-wide practice drill.

Fitzgerald, in a letter this week to the City Council, added that for purposes of information a medical services exercise of Civil Defense and Disaster will take place on Saturday, May 13. This exercise will be performed at various hospitals throughout the county.

He also added that the county's Civil Defense and Disaster Master Plan had been submitted to the state for final approval.

MARGUERITES EXCELENT FOR ADDING COLOR TO GARDENS

You seldom see them in the garden shows, and please don't ask us why. For when it comes to adding color in any corner, Marguerites are really blooming marvels.

These durable daisies bloom in spring; they bloom in summer and they bloom in fall. In favored areas, they even bloom through winter, which just completes the cycle. Add to this their easy culture and you have the fool-proof answer to any gardener's dreams.

We think of Marguerites as shrubs. Actually, they are perennials — members of the chrysanthemum family — and many gardeners like to treat them as such by starting new plants each year. Those who don't start from scratch, renew old plantings by cutting them back in late fall or early spring, sacrificing a short period of bloom while the new growth takes hold.

There is something to be said for the annual replanting of new Marguerites since, as with their "cousin" chrysanthemums, they seem healthier and happier when young. Unlike chrysanthemums, however, they don't need any pampering to keep them at their best.

Marguerites are better for a little neglect then for too much care. They don't need a rich soil nor anything special in the way of water. Feeding is something they're better off without. They do like a sunny spot, though, where bloom will be both encouraged and enhanced. Be sure they get it.

Marguerites, as most of us know, are to be found in both white and yellow-flowering forms, the latter being far more popular. Recent years have brought us pink Marguerites, also, and the California Association of Nurserymen reports a heavy demand for such a novelty.

In the garden, Marguerites have unlimited uses . . . all in the sun. You can tub them for display on the deck, string them out along a neglected drive, mix them in a border of other perennials such as Lavender and Red Hot Pokers. They adapt readily to any situation, so try them where you will.

It's News To Vets

Q—I am a 62-year-old World War I veteran. Can I enter a VA domiciliary when I'm 65?

A—There is no age limit. A veteran must have a disability that incapacitates him from earning a living and must meet certain other medical and legal criteria, to be admitted for VA domiciliary care.

Q—Has the War Orphans Education program now been extended to include children of some deceased peacetime veterans?

A—Yes. Children who have lost a veteran-parent through death that resulted from a service-connected injury or illness may benefit from the Orphans Education Program, even though the parent concerned served only in peacetime.

Q—What deadlines have been established for the expiration of GI Loan rights for veterans?

A—Applications by World War II veterans for GI loans must be received by the VA from lenders before July 26, 1962. Veterans with service during the Korean Conflict period have until January 31, 1965, to obtain GI loans.

Q—Where should a veteran write regarding mustering out pay?

A—Queries should be directed to the branch of the Armed Services in which the veteran served.

Q.—I am the widow of a World War II veteran who had six months of overseas service. Will I get a pension under the new pension law that went into effect last July 1?

A.—It appears that you may be eligible for a pension, but you will not receive one unless you apply for it. Contact the nearest VA office. The contact representative will help you make out your application.

Q.—Can I apply to the Veterans Administration for a headstone for my husband's grave. He was a World War II veteran.

A.—Yes. Headstones are available for eligible deceased veterans of World War II. Although applications must go to the Quartermaster General of the Army, any VA office will provide information and other assistance in filing the application.

Q.—Which VA domiciliaries have accommodations for women veterans to live there as members?

A.—The domiciliaries at Bay Pines, Fla.; Dayton, Ohio; Los Angeles, Calif., and Martinsburg, West Va.

Q.—Why are some veterans' "children" receiving pensions even though they are elderly persons?

A. — Pensions to veterans' children usually stop at age 18 or 21 if attending school or when the child marries. In the case of children who become mentally or physically unable to provide for themselves before they reach age 18, and who remain single, the pension is continued as long as this condition lasts.

Dahlia Enthusiasts Claim They Produce Greatest Show On Earth

A diehard dahlia enthusiast will tell you that dahlias produce the greatest show on earth. And whether you agree or not, you'll have to concede some merit to his claim. Few plants produce more color per square inch.

If you would have a dahlia show in your own garden this summer and fall, the time has come to set the stage for it. A check with the California Association of Nurserymen indicates that most member nurseries have a full supply of dahlia tubers in stock at this time.

Perhaps the thing that has attracted so many followers to this summer bulb is that fact that it comes in so many sizes and shapes. Blooms range from tidy little pompoms to huge shaggy mops of color; from open face singles to formal doubles. Your C.A.N. nurseryman can show you pictures and give you some idea of the variety in form and size.

Before planting the tubers, you should decide what role dahlias are to play in your garden. Hobbyists usually cultivate them in separate beds which are held inviolate throughout the year in preparation for the big show. Less dedicated gardeners will probably want to mix dahlias into a border of other blooming plants. They are colorful foundation plants if not permanent ones, and in tubs, their color is easily shown off wherever and whenever it's needed.

In planting the tall, large flowered dahlias it is important to drive a stake before setting in the tuber. Dig a hole about six inches deep and drive the stake on one side. Set the tuber flat with the bud or "eye" toward the stake and only fill the hole halfway. As the top sprouts and grows you should gradually fill in the soil to ground level.

The dwarfer dahlias may or may not need staking. We're inclined to forget the stake with smaller flowered varieties, keeping the plants sturdy and full by frequent pinching out of the growing top. If you top-water, however, staking helps to hold the plants up under the deluge.

Billy Graham Film To Premiere At Westlake Community Baptist

Evangelist Billy Graham's newest feature-length dramatic film, "Shadow of the Boomerang," will have its Daly City premiere Thursday, at Westlake Community Baptist Church, Southgate and Elmwood streets.

Starring Georgia Lee and television's Buffalo Bill, Jr., Dick Jones, "Shadow of the Boomerang" is an outdoor action picture with all of the excitement and breath - taking scope of the land, "Down Under." Setting for the screen drama is Australia's "Outback," the Continent's vast interior region where some of the world's largest cattle stations are located.

The two Americans head an all-Australian supporting cast, playing brother and sister roles in a turbulent story of homestead life. Their arrival is Australia to manage newly acquired family holdings, plunges the couple into strange surroundings and situations with which they find it difficult to cope. The brother is immature and impetuous, slow to accept Australian ways. His sister is much more democratic, readily accepted by her new friends with whom she joins in an attempt to instill understanding and tolerance in her brother.

Filmed against the backdrop of the Billy Graham Australian Crusades, "Shadow of the Boomerang" seeks to underline the Godly reaction to human crises and conflicts. Spokesman for the Christian position is Billy Graham, seen in dramatic Crusade footage photographed at the site of the evangelist's record-breaking crowds in Melbourne and Sydney. An authentic landline relay meeting which shared the big city Crusades with the stockmen of the Outback, is used as an effective dramatic device in the story climax.

Pupils Meet Problems About Outdoor Eating

Climatic conditions brought a request from student representatives at Vista Mar to enjoy the sunshine during their lunch period, for those finding it necessary to eat lunch as school.

Students, therefore, proceeded under teacher guidance to discuss this procedure, and to identify that this privilege to eat on the grass in the patio required certain responsibilities in terms of community pride of their school.

To this end, fifth and sixth grade students assumed the responsibility of presenting ideas of how best this could be accomplished. Since many students bring lunch, and in view of the lack of eating facilities in the building, students need to eat lunch in the classroom.

On nice days, hereafter, they will be eating in the patio on the mounded lawn. Organization and rules of behavior and responsibility have been identified by student council members and carried out in the policy and privilege which children enjoy.

Jeff In 1-0 Win Over Capuchino In Ball Game

Jefferson Indians nudged the Capuchino Mustangs 1-0 in a recent game.

The Mustangs failed to capitalize on three of the Indians' miscues in the bottom of the first inning, losing their only opportunity to score.

Jeff's Indians once again capitalized on the first inning strategy and heads up base running. Indian lead off man, Tom McEntee singled through the hole, followed by Sammy Stoller, who sacrificed McEntee to second, next Jack Fuertes drilled a line drive into left field for a base hit.

McEntee was held rounding third and the cut off man fired the ball back to second in an effort to nail the advancing Fuertes. But just as soon as the cut off man did fire the ball to second, McEntee took off for the plate and scored the winning tally.

Stan Montalbo, the Indian hurler, held the Mustangs to only three hits and allowed only one walk throughout the contest, picking off two Mustang runners.

Something About Sports

By JIM KALLENBACH

. . . The Intermediate Athletic Assn.—made up of Junior high boys—opened up its baseball season on Wednesday of last week with a real good game between Ben Franklin and Taylor of Millbrae at Franklin's new east field. Because of the hour, the game was finally stopped with a 3-3 tie. . . This league, which offers experience and training for future high school athletes is composed of Franklin and Colma, Parkside of San Bruno and Taylor. These four teams play on a double round home and home basis. . . .

In years past a couple of the Parochial schools have had teams in this league, but because of the game hours being what they were (3 o'clock or so), the coaches of these Catholic schools found the schedule a little rigorous, since most of them were not school coaches, but working men who gave their time, and gradually those schools were unable to continue and dropped out. Those private schools which dropped from the league were Holy Angels, OLM, OLPH.

. . . The league is not devoted exclusively to baseball, however. During the school year, after the school doors close for the day, these boys engage in football, soccer, basketball, volleyball, basketball, and track. Each of these sports is played for a duration of about six weeks . . . Ben Franklin and Colma, as does Taylor and Parkside six weeks . . . Ben Franklin and Colma, as does Taylor and Parkside each has one team to represent the respective schools. This means a team is composed of both seventh and eighth graders. The team, early in the school year, is made up of a selection of the "best" players who turn out for practice. . . .

Ben Franklin will sponsor an invitational track meet here sometime during the week of May 24. Parkside will riciprocate at their field a week later. The meet will, of course, be among the four schools. . . .

. . . . Serra Bowl, Daly City's new and swanky 44-lane bowling palace, now under construction, will have its grand opening on Saturday, June 3. Summer and winter leagues at the new bowl are now being taken. For those interested, simply write or telephone Dick Wells at the Downtown Bowl, Jones and Eddy Streets, S.F.; the phone number is ORdway 6-3977. . . .

The local rec department has now formed its midget and junior teams for the spring baseball league. Some 34 teams—20 made up of midgets, 14 of juniors—and guided by 50 coaches have already started practice. First game for both leagues has been set for approximately May 15. . . .

. . . Several of the PAL baseball teams could use more coaches, any of you dads who'd like to give it a try in your spare time need only contact Ed Tomasello in the rec dept., or call him at PL 5-0850, and ask for ext. 18. . . .

. . . While on the subject of this department, it is playing a twilight softbal game on a challenge basis with the city's public works department this Thursday eve at 6:15 at Marchbanks Park. . . .

. . . A reminder! Don't forget the Harlem Globetrotters will be at the Cow Palace Friday night in what promises to be one of their zaniest games. Time is 8 o'clock. Tickets are $3.50 for center seats, and $2.75 for end seats. If you haven't gotten your ticket, you can do it at the door. . . .

. . . The Mariposa Boat Club's 11th bi-annual outboard boat races get under way at Lake Merced Sunday, April 23. More than 100 boat men will battle it out. First race begins at 11 a.m. Events will last all day. No admission will be charged, and club officials assure us there will be ample parking adjacent to the lake. . . .

. . . Since 50 is the magic number for Daly City this year, the regular golf tournament, which is sponsored by our Chamber of Commerce will now be called the Golden Jubilee Open. The date is May 25. Cost for green fees and the dinner will be a $20 greenback. A portion of the proceeds will go toward the Civic Celebration. . . . That's 30 for now. . . .
